Sympathy Rayburn Dixon (Stan’s uncle) passed away. His wife, Bonnie, is wheelchair bound and cannot live unassisted. They live in Gordon, TX.

Beautiful Feet Needs As many of you will be back to school shopping soon and buying new backpacks, The Feet would be a great place to donate the old ones! The Feet can always use backpacks, rolling suit cases and men’s underwear. You may drop them off in the tub in the foyer. Next Sunday is our next time to serve at The Feet, if anyone has been wanting to get involved and serve in this way! All are welcome!

Thank You all so much for our beautiful shower and the delicious food, kitchen utensils, pots & pans, glasses, & vacuum. Thank you also for your love and prayers. We love you all and are so grateful for your help in starting our life together.

92 - In Loving Kindness Jesus Came

INTERN INSIGHTS

Two weeks ago on a Wednesday evening, our church family gathered together in the gym, partook in a meal, and spent some time in worship and in fellowship. As I sat in the middle of our circled up chairs during worship, I couldn’t help but smile. I had Keira Bennington in my lap, while sitting next to Adam Johnson, all of us facing Mr. and Mrs. Bennett. To say I was feeling a very strong sense of community would be an understatement.

I began to feel as if I were back in Acts chapter 2, breaking bread with the apostles and worshipping with the fellow believers. One thing that sticks out to me in Acts 2 is verse 43 that simply says, “And all who believed were together and had all things in common.” Roughly 2,000 years later, we are still experiencing this same kind of community that the church in Acts was. I think it’s easy to forget sometimes that although we may come from different walks of life, we share the most significant thing in common, and that is Jesus Christ. We’re all working towards the same goal and I think it’s important that we pursue it as one body. I can’t even begin to express the love I have for this church family. I’m so grateful that God didn’t make us walk this earth alone, but instead provided people that get to walk this journey right alongside of us.

LESSON LINES

Forgiving Matthew 18:21-43

What would you do if you found Satan's lair?

The Legal Question: When is it okay to withhold forgiveness? Mt. 18:21

The Jesus Answer: It is okay to withhold forgiveness if you are willing to have forgiveness withheld from you! Mt. 18:22-35

Take Home:

- * You have the power to eliminate one of Satan's favorite places to live this morning.
- * Will you choose to stomp out this festering source?
