UPWORDS

Why do we meet?

Every summer we scatter. Sometimes it's camp, treks, visits to Grandma or epic family adventures. For whatever reason, a lot of folks just aren't here right now.

I miss them. That's okay. We're supposed to miss each other. We're supposed to feel incomplete when we don't get to see each other.

It's why the author of Hebrews told Christians not to — as the King James says — “forsake the assembly.”

We don't get together to punch a card, earn a perfect attendance medal or convince people we're “every-time-the-doors-open” Christians. To be honest, you and me “going to church” doesn't do much to advance God's kingdom in this world.

What it does is build us up, so we are energized to go out and do God's work. That's what Hebrews is talking about.

“Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” Hebrews 10:24-25 (NIV)

That's why we meet — to encourage each other, to “spur one another” in the direction of God's work.

Wherever we go, I hope we're worshipping God, learning and growing in his love, Jesus's grace the Holy Spirit's fellowship.

And when we do get back together, I am really looking forward to a good spurring!
